6.1.1 Participation of the Faculties/ Stakeholders in Decision Making Bodies

Each and every faculty actively participates in the various activities conducted at the College level from admissions to examination, staff deployment to evaluations. It is always monitored by the principal and management to encourage the staff to develop the institute and face the hurdles efficiently.

The college has been managing to induce various committees to carry out various activities of college from academics to cultural events. Principal makes sure to communicate the responsibilities and duties to all the Heads of the Department to conduct various activities at a successful rate. The teachers as well as students are always active members of it. Continuous meetings and gatherings of all Faculty heads along with the management at carried out at certain intervals for smooth functioning of the college.

Certain matters with high-end importance are handled with utmost care to ensure effective leadership and development of the institute. Participation of all the levels of hierarchy in decision making makes it a sustainable and quality centre of education.

The teachers are allotted duties to look after the building and maintenance of the institute, to look after placement of the students, to look after the females and their grievances and various cells are set up for student safety and health and counselling, resulting in a better internal affair of the college.
